FOREWORD

We the Senior Class of 1960 present this Thirteenth Edition of the Agricola to our parents, teachers, and friends.

The members of the staff have spent many hours trying to make this edition an interesting one.

We hope, as you turn each page, that you will remember the pleasant memories, joys, and sorrows of Burnsville High.

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF

BURNSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Route 2, Polkton, North Carolina

DEDICATION

We the Seniors of 1960 dedicate this the 13th Edition of the Agricola to the Burnsville High School in appreciation of what it has done for us in becoming what we are now. We greatly appreciate the Parents, Principals, and Teachers who have strived to make Burnsville an outstanding and an active school. As we go our separate ways, the memories of Burnsville will have a cherished place in our hearts.

CLASS PROPHECY

On a cold December night in the year of '65 as we snuggled down in a warm cozy bed, a lovely dream began to dance around in our minds. We could see that all of our classmates had become successful.

The first to appear was Joanne Davis and Janet Thomas working in "Jo and Jan's Beauty Saloon."

The next scene was Jimmy Preslar, a great T.V. comedian, who appeared on the "Red Skeleton Show."

As we ventured onward, we saw Linda Edwards, winner of many blue ribbons for being the best homemaker. She has put her husband on a diet for being overweight.

Buzzing and ringing fill our ears. We hear the voice of Brenda Mitchum saying, "Line's busy." We find out she has become head telephone operator.

You wouldn't believe it, but we see a sign saying "Helms' Used Car Lot." As we go inside, we hear Charles Helms telling about his favorite car.

As we journey down the street, we run into Ann Turner, who is now a head nurse at Charlotte Memorial Hospital.

We learned that Conrad Tucker was chief surgeon at Memorial Hospital. We never thought he would work in a hospital.

We suddenly find ourselves in the public library in Charlotte; we go to the information desk and we find one of our classmates, Mary Alice Bowers, now chief librarian.

As we arrived at the corner, Barbara Mitchum appeared in the doorway of "Barbara's Dress Shop."

A blue streak whisked by. It was Kenneth Lancaster, who was still playing the field, by riding the young girls in his new Chevrolet Convertible.

We soon saw Jean Thomas, a graduate of Wingate College, who has just opened her school of business.

Now we see a small figure coming toward us. It was Pat Thomas, now the world's champion skater.

Next to appear was Ruth Harward; she has just finished a business course and is searching for THE man.

We recognize Ann Preslar as being a secretarial receptionist at McEwen Funeral Home in Charlotte.

Allan Thompson, manager of the Cleveland Indians, made the headlines on the sports edition of the news by winning the world pennant.

An American Airlines Plane has just landed, and whom do we see as hostess? No one but Carolyn Thomas with her pilot, Herman.

We find ourselves in a huge theater in California where we see Louise Taylor modeling one of her own fashion designs.

Roger Taylor, the great scientist, is now beginning to send his rocket to Mars. He was always trying new experiments.

As our visions change, we see Allan Edwards receiving many trophies for winning the Darlington 500.

We recognize W. A. Harward. He shows his talent for playing basketball by being head coach at the University of North Carolina.

Suddenly we see John Smith, a well known deep-sea diver, getting ready for a big treasure hunt.

As we leave the city limits, we see Clinton Harward, now supporting his family by drawing comic strips for Walt Disney.

As our dream comes to an end, we see Barbara Thomas and Lorraine Thomas getting ready to go on a Dear hunt.

Lorraine Thomas

CLASS HISTORY

Now that we are seniors, we realize that it will not be long until our school days will be over. Of the days gone by, we have memories, which we shall cherish and carry with us forever. Now let us relive some of those never-to-be-forgotten moments.

In the year of '48 thirty-two eager children began their education. With the patience and guidance of Mrs. Alice Burch, our first grade teacher, we acquired enough knowledge to be promoted to the second grade.

During the years from the second through the eighth grade we had many "ups and downs", but we came through successfully with the aid of the following teachers: Mrs. Alice Lampley, Mrs. A. B. Collins, Mrs. Flora Parker, Mrs. Lucy Thomas, and Mrs. Eugenia Crawford, Mr. James Tice, Mr. Authur Newkirk, and Mr. R. C. Hargette.

The highlight of our grammar grade years was our trip to Raleigh when we were in the eighth grade. Mr. R. C. Hargette, along with our grade mothers, accompanied us. With the help of Mr. Hargette, we went through our eighth grade graduation with flying colors.

Four years ago, which brought us to the year of '57, we began our high school career. For a few days we wandered aimlessly around not knowing where to go. Soon we became accustomed to our new classes and teachers. Our Freshman teachers were: Mr. S. M. Kale, Mrs. Freida Griggs, Mrs. Polly Gaddy, and Mr. Donnie Dutton.

Before we realized it, we had acquired the name "Sophomores". Nothing much changed during our tenth year. Our social activities increased somewhat, and our subjects became more difficult. We started subjects under one new teacher, Mrs. Rosa Simpson.

When we think of our Junior year, we remember many good times along with all of the acquired knowledge. Our teachers were: Mr. S. M. Kale, Mrs. Polly Gaddy, Mrs. Rosa Simpson, Mr. Robert Parker, and Mr. Donnie Dutton. Under the direction of Mrs. Polly Gaddy our class sold candy, sponsored the Fall Festival, sold magazines subscriptions, sponsored the Beauty Contest and also the Homecoming Game and Queen. The money we made from these enabled us to take a trip to Washington, which we will long remember. Marshals from our class were: Barbara Mitchum and Joyce Austin Williams, Co-chiefs, Ann Turner, Ann Preslar, Brenda Mitchum, and Louise Taylor.

Seniors! My, how good that sounds. Our senior year has started out much like the others. We have sold candy and solicited ads to help finance our yearbook. Our senior teachers are: Mr. S. M. Kale, Mrs. Rosa Simpson, Mr. William Dechent, Mr. Homer Boling, and Mrs. Rebecca Hayman.

As graduation draws near, we realize how much we owe to our parents and teachers. Through their efforts, twenty-five seniors will graduate in '60. Some have quit; some have gone to other schools; and some have married. We are proud to be among the survivors.

Signed: Ann Preslar

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Burnsville High School, State of North Carolina, do hereby declare this is our last will and testament.

To the School, we leave our memories of the many times we looked for a chance to waste the time we should have used wisely.

To the Junior Class we leave our greatest treasures, our Senior dignity, our sense of humor, our good looks, and our charming personalities. As Seniors, we leave the Junior Class our best wishes.

I, Joanne Davis will to Tony Baucom my ability to play the piano.

I, Linda Edwards will to Johnny Braswell my shyness. Don't be so bashful.

I, Mary Alice Bowers will to Alvin Earnhardt my quiet ways.

I, Clinton Harward will to Earl Edwards, Jr., my ability to get along with the teachers.

I, Allan Edwards will to Dennis Helms my position as a bus driver.

I, Ann Turner will to Brenda Baucom my position on the first team.

I, Kenneth Lancaster will to John Bruce Morton my ability to climb and paint.

I, John Smith will to Michael Lee my ability to date pretty girls.

I, Jimmy Preslar will to Larry Parker my ability to behave in Mrs. Simpson's study hall.

I, Barbara Thomas will my height to Peggy Wright. I hope you enjoy being the smallest girl in your class.

I, Conrad Tucker will to Richard Ferree my position as a bus driver.

I, Ann Preslar will to Rebecca Beachum my position as a cheerleader.

I, Carolyn Thomas will to Darlene Baucom my position in the ice cream store.

I, Lorraine Thomas will my pretty blue eyes to Ann McSwain.

I, Charles Helms will to Gladys Floyd my good personality.

I, Allan Thompson will to Kenneth Russel my position as cashier in the cafeteria.

I, Ruth Harward will to Patsy Kearney my ability to make friends.

I, Pat Thomas will to Mary Ben Carey my ability to "love 'em, fool 'em, and leave 'em."

I, Janet Thomas will my cute ways to Ann Martin.

I, Brenda Mitchum will to Judy Sikes my charming personality.

I, Louise Taylor will to Dwala Allen my ability to date a Marshville boy.

I, Barbara Mitchum will to Judy Kiker my ability to be Chief Marshal my Junior year.

I, Jean Thomas will to Joel Edwards my seriousness. Try using it.

I, W. A. Harward will to Edward Taylor my permission to have Dad's car on weekends.

I, Roger Taylor will to Joel Edwards my ability to make good grades.

Class Testators: Clinton Harward & Kenneth Lancaster
